 RE: CREED SAUNDERS & his 1st wife, Pamela Dollarhide

Cornelius & Thomas Dollarhide

Cornelius Dollarhide is not in my line, but while trying to find out about my ancestor Francis Dollarhide IV, I researched Cornelius and Thomas Dollarhide who lived in Pulaski Co., KY. Pulaski County is not far from where I live, so I went there to see what I could find. I thought I would post some of my findings to this forum to help others. --LaVelda

Cornelius Dollarhide Sr. settled in Pulaski Co., KY in 1804 (obtained from tax lists) and would have been born ca 1762. He appears on the 1804 Tax List as "Cornelius Dolehead". Cornelius is recorded in tax lists until 1809 when he died. His will is recorded in Book 1 p 60-61. His wife, Jane, died in 1810(?) as her inventory and assessment is recorded (Bk 1 p 61). Cornelius mentions wife Jane, son Larkin and three "youngest daughters", Nancy, Jane and Feby. So he obviously had more children than those mentioned. Executor was Thomas Dollarhide and William Owens(?). It mentions the "hole of my estate during her (Jane's) life or widowhood and at her death or marriage the land I now live on I gave to my son Larkin Dollarhide and all other property to be equally divided between my three youngest daughters." Witnesses were John B. Lea and Thomas (his mark) Roy. The will was dated 19 Feb 1809. It was probated 22 Jan 1810 and proved by the oath of Thomas Roy a subscribing witness thereto.

I have assumed that Jane, his wife, died in 1810, but the more I look at the record, I almost believe that the record that I found pertains to the estate of her husband and not to her. It was found on the following page (from her husband's will) and was dated 10 March 1810;

"Mr. Edward Prather, Andrew ____ (cut off), William Bustor (Burton?), and Thomas Paschal hath met at the house of Jane Dollarhide to order to appraise her estate & C (to wit) (cut off)...1 mare and colt...6 head of cattle...17 head of hogs...8 head of sheep...4 geese...(the rest of the inventory was cut off at the bottom of the page. There may have been further inventory on the next page which I did not get copied).

From what I could ascertain from the records, Cornelius Sr. had at least:

1. Cornelius Dollarhide Jr.
2. Thomas Dollarhide
3. James Dollarhide
4. John(?) Dollarhide
5. Larkin Dollarhide
6. Nancy Dollarhide
7. Jane Dollarhide
8. Feby Dollarhide

Briefly, here is how the Pulaski Co., Ky tax lists were recorded:

1804 Cornelius Dolehead
 1805-1806 John Dollarhide; Cornelius Dollarhide
 1807 Thomas Dollarhide; Cornelius Dollarhide; John Dollarhide
 1808 Cornelius Dollarhide; Thomas Dollarhide; John Dollarhide; Cornelius Dollarhide; John Dollarhide
 1809 Thomas Dollarhide; Cornelius Dollarhide; John Dollarhide
 1810 James Dollarhide; Jane Dollarhide; John Dollarhide; Thomas Dollarhide
 1812 Jane Dollarhide; Thomas Dollarhide
 1813 Thomas Dollarhide; James Dollarhide
 1814-1817 Thomas Dollarhide

1818 James Dollarhide; Thomas Dollarhide
 1819-1823 Larkin Dollarhide; Thomas Dollarhide
 1824 Thomas Dollarhide heirs
 1827 Rebecca Dollarhide
 1828-29 No Dollarhides

Cornelius Dollarhide Jr. appears to have been in Pulaski Co., KY by 1806 when a survey of land was recorded on Pitmans Creek. His name was recorded as Cornelius Jr. He appears to have left the area by 1809. I have wondered if the Cornelius who died in 1809 was actually Jr. and not Sr. However, in 1808, there were two Cornelius on the tax list which leads me to believe otherwise.

Thomas Dollarhide was born ca 1775-80. He settled in Pulaski Co., Ky by 1807. He married Rebecca _____. He was a Senator from Pulaski Co., to the Kentucky legislature and died in 1821 in Frankfurt, KY while at the assembly. His inventory and account was recorded in 1822 and in 1829 (Bk 2 p 117 and 393) in Pulaski County. A settlement was made in 1829 (Bk 3 p 182-85). His wife, Rebecca, died in 1828. An inventory was made in Pulaski Co (Bk 2 p 364).

Frances "Frankey" Dollarhide was born in 1782 in NC and married John Bratcher Lea in Caswell County, NC on 24 Nov 1802; She died 17 Feb 1852 in Pulaski Co., KY, age 70. Ezekiel Dollarhide was listed as her father according to her death record.

As I mentioned in my posting above, I am not certain that the Cornelius Dollarhide who died in 1809 was Sr. or Jr. However a deed mentions Cornelius Dollarhide and wife NANCY, indicating that there were two Cornelius' there. I also do not know if John was a son as he was listed as "John Jr" in one of the land surveys below.

Surveys, Pulaski Co., KY

Surveyor: James Hargrove. Chaincarriers: William Dewes (Devins?), Lovel H. Cloghan(?), Jesse Kuney, Alexander Herrin.

It would appear that these Dollarhides came from Caswell Co., NC. The following marriages may apply:

1. Cornelius Dollerhide married Nancy Malone on 30 July 1796 in Person Co., NC.
2. Frankey Dollarhide married John Bratcher Lea on 24 Nov 1802 in Caswell co., NC
3. John Dollerhide married Nancy Chittington 3 Nov 1784 in Caswell co., NC.

Here are some Pulaski Co., KY Dollarhide marriages that I was not able to fit into the family. They may have been children of Cornelius or John Jr.??

1. Betsy Dollerhide married ____ Cox in 1811.
2. Rachel Dollarhide married Jonathan Smith 4 Jan 1809
3. Sally Dollarhide married David Smith on 22 July 1810 or 1811(?)
4. Nancy Dollarhide married Archer Nevil on 22 Aug 1821.
5. Rebecca Dollarhide married Christopher C. Hancock on 17 Dec 1839.

The following are some deeds that I found in Pulaski Co., Kentucky (silly me did not write down the references (deed books and pages - I don't know why):

30 Jan 1812 Robert Mims of Goochland Co., VA to Thomas Dollerhide of Pulaski Co., KY, $300, 90 acres on Pitman's Creek (waters of Cumberland River), part of a military survey of 1000 acres granted to Rawleigh Colston by patent in 1786, on Rocky Branch...line between Mim's and Dollarhide.. The next month on 7 Feb 1812, Thomas Dollarhide sold 162 acres to Andrew Campbell on Pitman's Creek for $450, this was the same land he had received above. This deed was witnessed by Henry L. Mills and Will. Levine Junior.

On 13 Jan 1812 Cornelius Dollerhide of Pulaski and NANCY his wife sold 190 acres to Jonathan Bishop for $800. This land was on Sinking Creek. The deed mentions John Caldwell's east line and Aaron Dosses(?) corner.

The same John Caldwell mentioned above, later of Wayne Co., KY, appointed Thomas Dollerhide power of attorney to assign Banks and Snyder a certificate of Survey No. 323 for 200 acres. This document was witnessed by John David(?) and Mary Caldwell and was made in 1815.

Polly Dunn of Pulaski Co., KY, widow of Ezekiel L. Dunn, also appointed Thomas Dollerhide as her attorney to collect and receive all monies due her and her children from the U.S. for services rendered in the War of 1812 by said Ezekiel L. Dunnm who died in said service in 1814. This was dated 1816.

On 2 Dec 1818, Thomas Dollerhide of Pulaski Co., KY bound himself unto John B. Lea in the amount of $2000 which payment was to be made himself or his heirs. The condition of this obligation was such that if the above Thomas Dollarhide made a good and lawful title to a certain tract or parcel of land on Pitman's Creek containing 150 acres on which both Dollarhide and Lea "now live" entered and surveyed in the name of Michael Kuney, the obligation was to be made void. This was made in the presence of Thomas Paschal.

After Thomas Dollarhide's death, his heirs deeded the above land to John B. Lea for $1.00 on 17 Nov 1832. This deed supposedly lists all of Thomas' heirs.

In 1814, James Dollerhide was mentioned in the Pulaski Co. Election Returns as was Thomas Dollerhide in 1816 and 1819. Thomas Dollarhide was elected Senator to the Kentucky Legislature.

Thomas Dollerhide enlisted in the 95th Regiment formed Feb 1815. He was Major of the Second Battalion. Captain Thomas Dollerhide of Dollerhide's Kentucky Battalion of Mounted Volunteers enlisted Sept. 1812. His Sergeant was Samuel Hays.

According to the 1820 Pulaski Co., KY Census, Thomas Dollerhide had three male slaves (1 under 14, 1 age 14-26, and one age 26-45). From his estate inventory in 1822, he had a female slave named Vilet and three male slaves named David, Hector, Caroline and Floyd.

Col. Thomas Dollerhide, senator from Pulaski Co., KY died at Frankfort, Kentucky in November 1821 according to a newspaper article in the Kentucky Gazette.

A settlement for Thomas Dollarhide was made in 1829 (Bk 3 p 182-85), and inventory and account was recorded in 1822 and in 1829 (Bk 2 p 117 and p 393) and an Inventory and Assessment for Rebecca Dollerhide was recorded in 1828 (Bk 2 p 364).

I have a copy of these. The Appraisal of the Estate dated 15 Feb 1822 is quite long. Some of the things mentioned are: woman's sadle and bridle; one rifle gun and shot bag; Five Journals and Four Acts of the Legislature of Kentucky; three beds; one side arms and sheath; pair saddle bags; one chest; one table; One family Bible; one Dictionary; three Hymn Books; Browns Concordance "The McHoobie Association"; one slate; one pair sheep shears; candle molds; pair of fire irons; one loom; three "slays"; two "pare harnesses"; one washing tub; churn; two puter dishes; seven plates; lantern; coffee mill; one man's saddle and bridle; three shovel plows; four hors one pare doubtrees; four flour(?) waggons; one truck wagon; one kettle; two ovens; one large pot; six hundred weight of tobacco; one bay mare; one sorrel mare blazeface; one dark sorrel mare; one old sorrel mare; three horse colts; 14 head of sheep; many cows listed; one steer; one bull; two work steers; two small work steers; one heiffer; at least 11 cows and calves mentioned; two yearling steers; three yearling heiffers and bull; five spaid sows and barrows; thirteen sows and barrows; seventeen geese; eleven small shoats; one negro woman named Vilet; one negro boy named Floyd; one boy called David; one boy called Hector one boy(?) called Carroline; a note due from Peter Clark; a note on Samuel Cowan; a note on Gideon Prather; a note on Bratcher Lee; a note on Daniel C. It would appear from this inventory that Thomas was well to do and lived well. This inventory was returned 4th March 1822 in Somerset, Pulaski Co., Ky County Court.

In 1828, John Cowan, Samuel Hays and Charles Hays again appraised Thomas Dollerhide's inventory and estate (WB 2 p 393-5). The inventory this time was not as long.

Thomas Dollarhide's wife, Rebecca Dollarhide's will is recorded in WB 2 p 364-5, Pulaski Co., KY, dated 28 July 1828:

Well....as I have said I am not descended from these Dollarhides, but I am sure they are related back in North Carolina to my Francis Dollarhide IV. I have not yet tried to figure out their relationship. Possibly Cornelius and Francis IV were brothers???? --LaVelda
